

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The Eagle Scouts of America are trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, and reverent; and,

Whereas, Dwight Montgomery, a young man from Fairview, South Dakota, has been participating in scouting, earning many merit badges, has completed a community service project and skill awards in a myriad of areas; and,

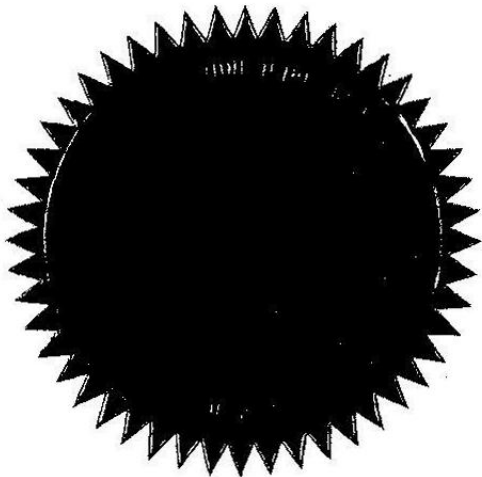

Whereas, Dwight has been striving for the ultimate goal in scouting, to become an Eagle Scout, and achieved the status of Eagle Scout on May 6, 2003, and will be recognized for this achievement at his Court of Honor on September 14, 2003; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of the major accomplishments in the lives of South Dakota's young people:

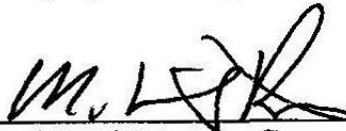

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 14, 2003, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
